

We have been saved from excess phone solicitations as a result of being included on the don't call list of the Indiana Attorney General. It is very difficult for elderly people to answer the telephone and worse when the phone call is an unwanted commercial solicitation. This is not the purpose of our telephone service.